

Please do not take any action that would lessen the effectiveness of Indiana's current telephone privacy protections. We do not wish to be disturbed by telemarketers at any time. The current measures have effectively reduced the disruptions to our family's life (meals, homework, quality time etc) and I do not want to go backwards